Dedication

The class of '54 takes great pride in dedicating this edition of the Guneukitschik to our parents.

"The Mother - comforter, counsellor, guide,
A friend in whom you can confide.
The Father - strength, protection and care,
Laughing at burdens he has to bear."

Foreword

Producing the 1954 edition of the GUNEUKITSCHIK has been a privilege and a great responsibility. To produce a book which will be enjoyed by everyone necessitates much planning and also several important factors.

1. The yearbook staff must function as a well oiled machine.
2. The desires of the student body must be considered.

We hope you will appreciate this book as much as we enjoyed producing it. It is also hoped that we gave recognition to everyone deserving it. If you find we did not, please do not be too critical.

We hope that each and everyone of you will enjoy the book and feel that it belongs to you for it really does.

Faculty Activities

1-2-5 FACULTY

To end the past year's school events we find the faculty relaxing at the Fish and Game Club where they enjoyed a luncheon and boat ride on the Potomac River.

The first Industry Education Day was held on September 28, 1953. This gave our teachers a chance to become better acquainted with the Washington County Industries.

The other major activity for the teachers was the second curriculum workshop. Here they heard famous speakers, and conferred with consultants about their particular problems. They hope eventually to work out a course of studies for Washington County Schools.

Valedictorian

Working with students and teachers is a wonderful, unforgettable experience as I have found during my twelve years in school.

The first preparation for any field of endeavor is gained in high school. Stay in school, join in the activities, learn to know and enjoy working and playing with fellow students, and gain the preparation you need for the future. You will never regret it!

Shelby Cline

Salutatorian

We, the "Class of 54," would especially like to thank the members of the faculty for their patience, understanding, and leadership. Through their combined efforts we have grown in knowledge, have learned to assume responsibilities, and thus have attained those qualities and characteristics which make for successful and happy living.

In the early part of 1951 there was a move put under way which caused a big change at W. H. S. This move was the adopting of the Student Council. The Student Council is composed of representatives from every home room in both the Junior and Senior High Schools.

The purpose of this Council is to bring the faculty and students to closer understandings with each other.

Under the guidance of Jacob Hershman, the advisor, this organization has proved its point throughout the years it has been functioning.

Concert Band

The Williamsport High School Band is bringing to a close their second year of activities as a full band organization. At the present time there are approximately fifty members in the band and a second younger organization of twenty-five.

This year the band has taken part in most of the activities within the school and several parades and concerts in the surrounding communities. The outstanding event being winner of second prize in the annual Mummer's Parade. Concerts were played by the band in Smithburg High School and Boonsboro Elementary School during December of this year.

Other events in which the musical organization has taken part included participation in the memorial parade in Williamsport, Tag Day parade, half time program at the Williamsport Clearspring Soccer game, and incidental music for the School Glee Club production of the "Pirates of Penzance."

This year, the band was proud to be able to display its new uniforms and also its two brand new shiny tubas.

Membership in the band is open to all members of the student body.

The Special Choir of W. H. S. consists of Juniors and Seniors who were picked by the director, Mrs. Heffner, for their ability to sing and to co-operate.

For the first time the Special Choir became part of the music curriculum. The choir practiced three times a week and accomplished much more because of this planning.

Future Farmers of America

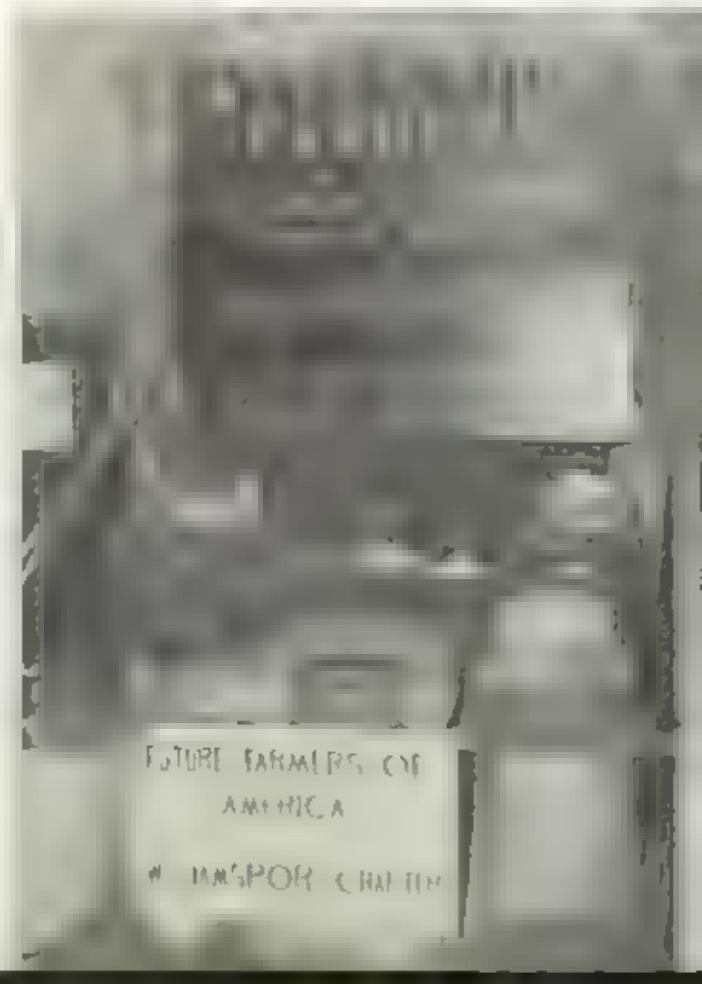

This past fall at the annual F. F. A. fat hog show, Williamsport members of the F. F. A. won many prizes. Two prizes won by the boys' hogs were the grand champion and reserve champion. The grand champion hog, shown by Gerald Cavanaugh, brought a record breaking price of one dollar a pound. The reserve champion, shown by Paul Hockenberry, brought a very good price at eighty-five cents a pound. The hogs shown by Williamsport boys practically dominated the show.

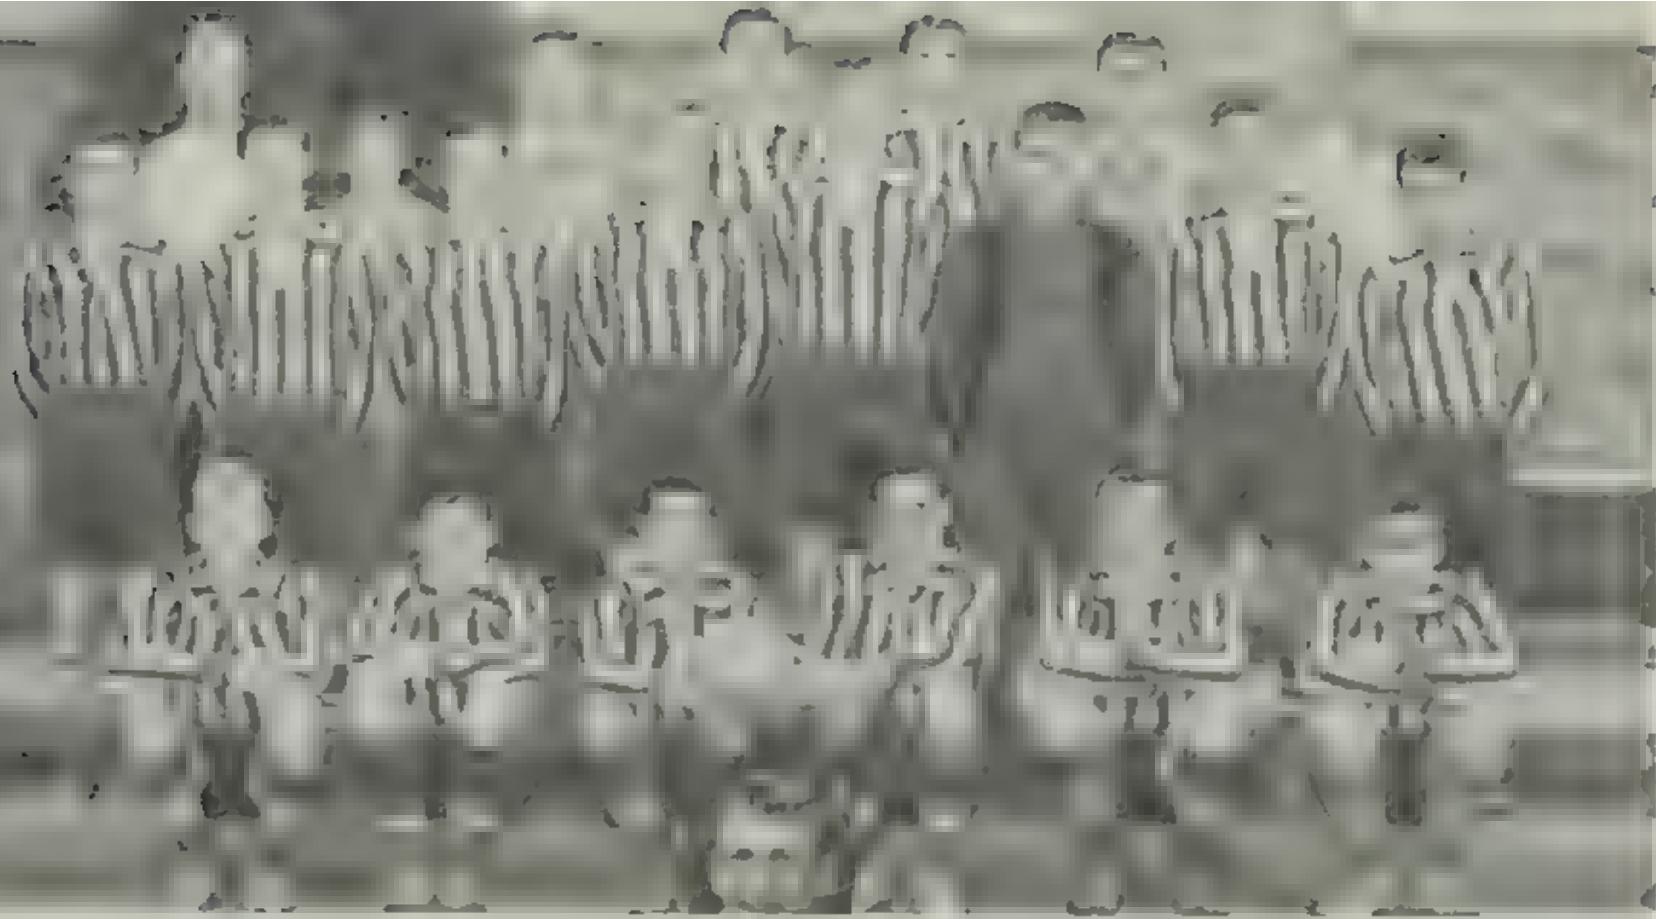

At the annual Hagerstown fair in September, the Williamsport Future Farmers of America Chapter entered a very fine booth. This booth won a first prize. The three pictures at the top of the page show some of the animals that were shown by Williamsport boys.

Runners Up In

The '53 Soccer squad of W.H.S. had a very successful season by coming out second best in Washington County competition. With the excellent coaching of Richard Doub and with eight lettermen back from last year's team, this ball club seemed to march its way up the ladder to its goal. It was an honor to have been the only team in the County to play host to the fine Mercerburg Academy eleven twice. The last game ending in a 1-1 tie.

Brown, Davis, and Barber scramble for ball in opponents' backfield.

Jumping after the ball are Brown and Hancock's goalie, while Barber comes in from the wing and Helmintoller backs up the line.

This year's basketball season was outstanding because of the fine team play. Coach Schatz pointed out early in the season that good team play is an indication of good sportsmanship. Although W.H.S. was on the losing side as often as the winning side, both the team and the fans had a wonderful time. No one will forget the Clearspring and Smithsburgh games which were won at the last second by fine team play.

Next year, the squad will get off to a fine start, losing only two varsity members, those being Ronnie Davis and Vince Helmintoller.

The Williamsport High School softball squad is composed of girls from the sophomore, junior, and senior classes. The team has nine players and a few substitutes. Their games are generally played during school hours and their practices are held after the school hours. The girls really had fun laughing and singing on their way to and from the games. Even though the team had a mediocre season they managed to maintain their high spirits.

Home run King

GEORGE LEMEN
Ace Pitcher

The Williamsport High School baseball team, winners of seven straight games in County competition, won the County Championship of 1953.

With the outstanding pitching of George Lemen and the batting of Ronnie Davis the boys found little trouble in accomplishing this feat. Ronnie Davis hit 476 while Charles Potts led in the home run department with three.

Coached by Mr. Doan the Billporters had an overall record of 8-2 losing only to Frederick and Hagerstown.

In the picture below front row, left to right are: W. Hetzel, B. Martin, R. Davis, C. Potts, V. Heimstoller, R. Baker, G. Lemen, J. Brown, and L. Herbert. In the back row left to right are Coach R. Doub, T. Anderson, J. Hose, D. Roof, R. Anderson, E. Hess, E. Wyand, G. Marshall and J. Shaw.

Senior Members of "W" Club

To get an athletic "W," the student must be active in at least a half of each quarter of every game. The sports included are baseball, basketball, fieldball, softball and soccer. This year twenty-seven students received their athletic "W." Above are the seniors who have won their "W."

First row: Ross Cunningham, Vince Helmintoller, William Turner.

Second row: Richard Kesselring, Joyce Mumford, Shelby Cline, Harry Hamilton.

Extra-Curricular "W" Club

Each year the Student Council presents W's to those seniors who are outstanding in extra-curricular activities. The student qualifies by earning points in these activities.

The W's are purchased and presented by the Student Council of Williamsport High School and all rules and regulations governing these awards are made by the aforementioned body.

No person may be permitted to exhibit any W on the W. H. S. premises unless it was earned in sports or other extra-curricular activities.

Books and Crooks

These kids have more important things to do with their time than go chasing after bank robbers. I wonder what ????

The story takes place in a typical high school with two crooks robbing a bank across the street and coming into the school to hide out. To do this they must temporarily dispose of the Principal. The boss, who is an exact double of the real Principal, poses as Principal Henly and his partner poses as a member of the Board of Education. Many complications arise such as financing the band uniforms and trip but they are soon exposed by some of the students--Larry in particular. The police investigate, arrest the two criminals, release the real Principal, and things turn out all right.

There are touching love affairs between students Larry and Lindy, and Goody and Gerard.

December Highlights

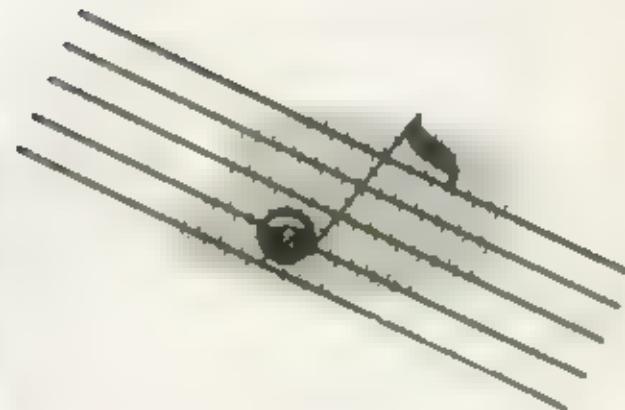

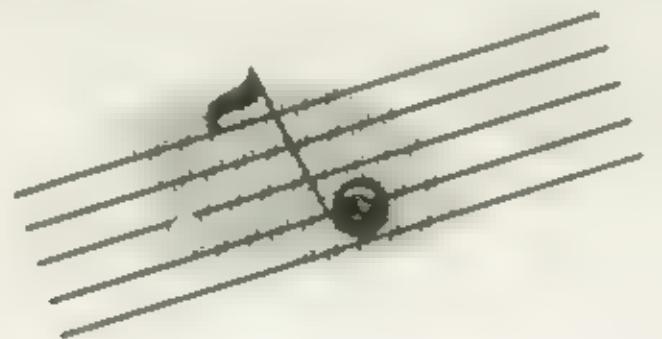

Pirates of Penzance

The Williamsport High School Glee Club under the direction of Ellen N. Heffner, has, for many years held a fine reputation for its fine works in staging many great operettas. It has presented such well-known works as "Cherry Blossom," by Dodge and Dodge, "Oklahoma," by Rodgers and Hammerstein, "Down in the Valley" by Kurt Weill and this year reached its height by staging Gilbert and Sullivan's famous "Pirates of Penzance."

The Glee Club, consisting of almost sixty members, gave a performance of these immortal works that will be long remembered by those who saw them.

Director, Ellen N. Heffner, preparing makeup for member of chorus.

The Prom Committee worked hard for the success of the Junior Prom. Their work paid off because the Prom was a big success. Left to right: Vincent Helmintoller, Paul Davis, Ronnie Davis, Terry Taylor, Billy Turner, Shelby Cline, Joyce Mummert, and Wilma Shipley.

The dancers seem to be having an enjoyable time. This night will not soon be forgotten.

Prom

The moment for which everyone awaits finally arrives. All couples join in the Grand March.

May 15, 1953 was an eventful evening for all who attended the Junior Prom.

The secret to its success was the fine management of the prom committee and the wonderful work of Miss Sarah E. Dorn.

All who attended, enjoyed the music of Phil Young.

After dancing for awhile, it does one good to enjoy a glass of punch.

Librarians

The students pictured above are those which have participated in the program Hi News. The programs are held every Saturday morning over radio station WARK.

The librarians are a group of students who work in the library voluntarily and try to make the library more pleasant to work in. They are under the excellent guidance of the Librarian Miss Mary Breakall.

Our P.O.D. Class Is Active

Our P. O. D. class under the guidance of Mr. Jacob E. Hershman has been taking trips to various places. Perhaps the trip that will be remembered by the senior class for a long time was the one to the University of Maryland. On September 26, 1953, the senior class motored to College Park to tour the campus, see a football game and have a free meal. All enjoyed the trip.

The class also enjoyed the trip to the Salem Avenue School. The trip was taken to supplement our unit on education. This school is one of the most modern buildings in the United States.

W. H. S. contestants: Marriet Bauer, Ross Cunningham, Ginny Jo Traver and Carolyn Coakley.

I Speak for Democracy Contest

The Winning Speech

I Speak for Democracy By Carolyn Coakley

An experience I had this past summer taught me more about real democracy in action than any other I have ever had.

I attended a camp made up of teen-agers from high school, not only from our nation but from foreign countries as well. The group had representatives from Pennsylvania, Maryland, Iowa, New York, Ohio, the District of Columbia, and two foreign countries - Germany and France.

Among those that attended there were 33 white high school students and 27 Negroes. There was no racial segregation practiced among the councilors or the campers.

I, a Lutheran, shared a cabin with a Methodist, a Roman Catholic, a Quaker, and a Presbyterian. In that room and that small group I became a part of a cross section of the many religious and racial groups that make up our democracy.

The main purpose of the camp as of all the others run by the American Friends Service Committee, is to create a better understanding of each other, and to study political, economic, and social problems of our world today.

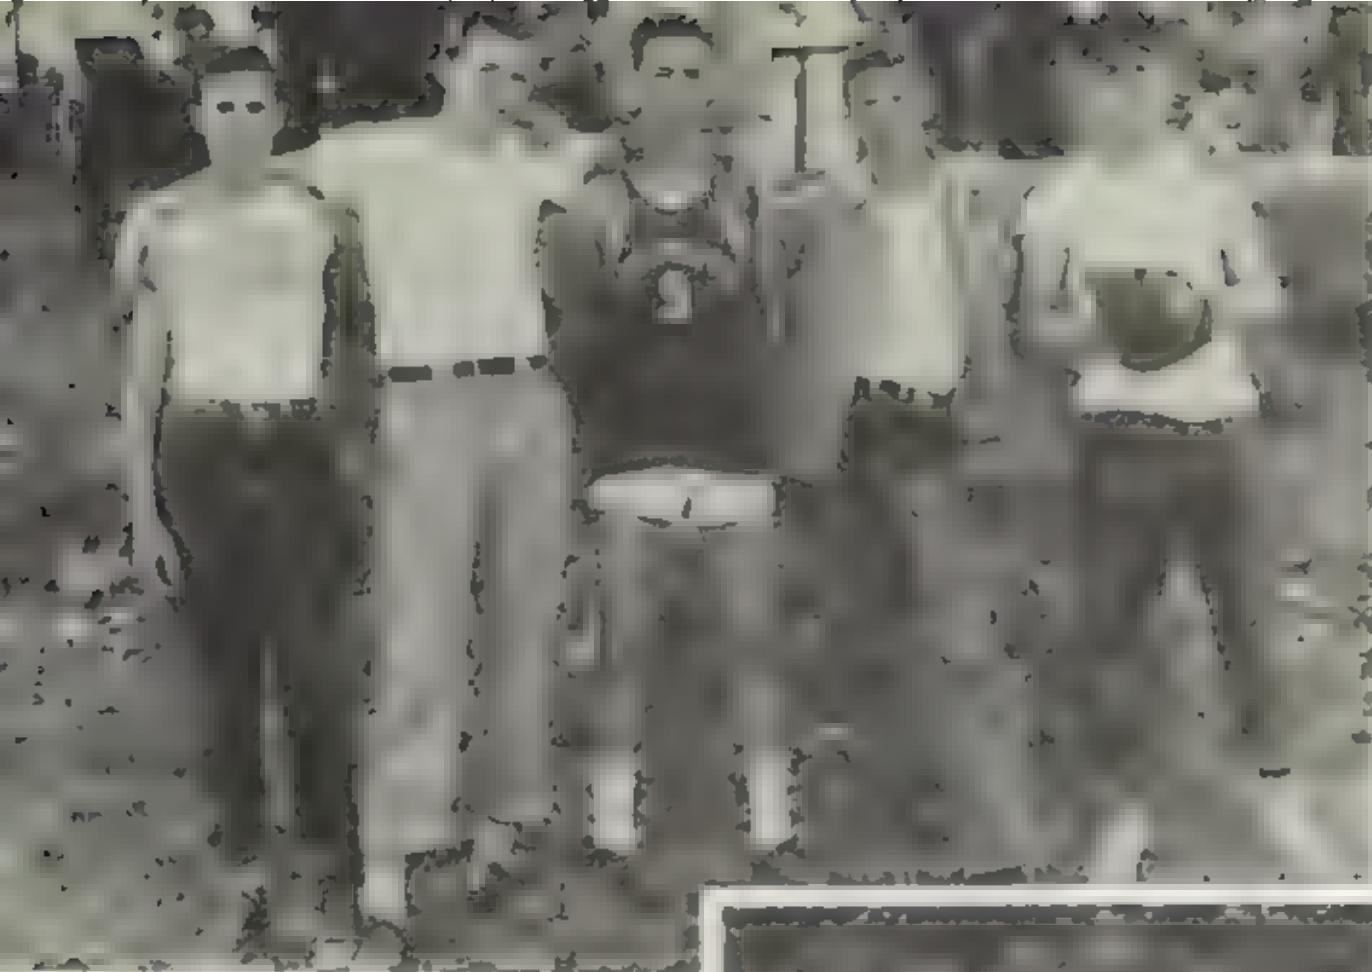

We listened to different people telling of their lives and their experiences in the countries of China, India, Germany, and Korea. We saw movies pertaining to the conditions of some of the foreign countries after the dread horror of war and famine had visited their lands. We discussed these and many other problems existing in the world today. I think the wonderful thing about this camp was that everyone had the opportunity to express his views on the many subjects discussed there. I believe this to be one of the best qualities of democracy, the right to speak your opinion freely.

Carolyn Coakley, a member of the Sophomore class at Williamsport High, won the "I Speak for Democracy" contest for Washington County this year. This is an oratorical contest which is a nationwide affair, for the purpose of encouraging young people to write and state their views on Democracy.

The contest is held annually. The school finals take place in November, county finals in December, state finals in January. The national finalists are selected in February.

For winning the school contest, Carolyn was presented with a Schaffer pen and pencil set. After she was chosen county winner, she received a General Electric Clock Radio. Both gifts were presented by a member of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Winning the county contest entitled Carolyn to enter the state finals. There were twenty-five other students from all over the state of Maryland. Even though she did not win one of the top four, we are all proud of her.
